Creating powerful partnerships

‘Inspiring Young Birmingham’ Launch Event at Birmingham City University on 3rd October 2019

We are launching Inspiring Young Birmingham to the business community, giving them the chance to be part of an exciting new initiative. Are you interested in getting involved and making a difference?

Following a pilot with almost 200 young people from across the region, EmployabilityUK is proud to be launching 'Inspiring Young Birmingham' to the business community on 3rd October 2019.

This is an opportunity for you to hear about this exciting programme and pledge your support to ensure its future success.

The Inspiring Young Birmingham (IYB) initiative will see more than 1,500 young people become 'Games Ready' over the next three years, having undertaken a special employability skills workshop. Open to under-24's from across the region, IYB will help to prepare them for a volunteering role or to apply for one of the many job opportunities that the Commonwealth Games will bring to Birmingham.

The launch event will take place in the Executive Suite at Birmingham City University, Curzon Building, Birmingham, B4 7BD from 10.15 – 12.30 on Thursday 3rd October 2019.

You will hear from supporters of the charity including our Patron - Ninder Johal, Paul Faulkner - CEO of Greater Birmingham Chamber of Commerce, and Ian Reid - CEO of Birmingham 2022.

You will get the chance to meet some of the young people that took part in the recent pilot and learn more about the work of our charity from the Team.

Prior registration is essential, please use this LINK to reserve your place.
